

Deenie Miller is the first full-time Language Access Coordinator for the Administrative Office of Courts. In this position, she is responsible for court interpreter training and certification and ensuring the Mississippi State Judiciary is in compliance with federal rules and regulations regarding court interpreters. Deenie trains judges, court personnel, and attorneys on the importance of language access in the courts. She obtained her Paralegal Certification from Millsaps College in 2000. Prior to joining the Administrative Office of Courts in July of 2022, Deenie worked at Bell & Associates, P.A. for Senior Status Judge James D. Bell for over ten years. She lives in Brandon with her husband, Carey and their daughter, Vivi.